Saturday: Backpack “shakedown” at CHPC. Inspect backpacks for all needed gear, return home to acquire needed items. Depart CHPC by 10:00am. Arrive at BMP to have each car drop off scouts and gear at the far rear Planetarium parking lot, closest to the Amphitheater. Announce at the gate that you are part of scout camping and there will be no entrance fee. Shuttle cars to Laurel Run parking lot for pickup Sunday. Only two cars can park in designated spots at BMP (See Brian Shone for parking passes). From 9-11am: Pack School, Outdoor Code/Leave No Trace, and prepacking at Amphitheater shelter. 11am-1pm: inspect packs and make adjustments so that this outing is an enjoyable backpacking experience. From 1-4pm: organize groups and hike around lake and through Feagins Gap to park’s primitive campground - roughly 3 miles. Afterwards, set up camp at cabin and mown open field. Cook dinner and work on scouting skills (knots, tent set-up, fire building, cooking, etc.) Have a rousing campfire, so bring stories, jokes, and skits.

Sunday: Rise just after the sun at 7:30am to prepare and eat breakfast, break camp, and have a vesper service. 9am-1pm: hike along mountain ridges, past waterfalls, cross stream, and reach Laurel Run park - roughly 4 miles. Stop for a trail lunch on the way to Laurel Run. Return to CHPC.

All scouts are welcomed, and the more experienced scouts will be helping build the confidence and skill level of the younger ones.
